Pond Home residents entertained by Maxine & Melanie

WRENTHAM, MA...Pond Home residents recently gathered in the facility's spacious and gracious living room to enjoy an afternoon of classical flute and guitar music performed by the duo of Maxine and Melanie.

Flutist Maxine Johnson is also the owner of Foresight Personal Financial Planning, LLC in Attleboro. She is a certified financial planning practitioner and offers the objective advice of a fee-only financial planner to her clients.

Melanie Samuel, classical guitarist and mother of three very active and talented children, works with her husband in their family business Abacus Software Systems.

Following the performance, Johnson commented, "We thoroughly enjoyed playing for the Pond Home residents; they were so attentive and appreciative...and the living room is an ideal space for beautiful chamber music."
