Pond Home & Pond Meadow Announce New Board Member

WRENTHAM, MA...President John Michelmore is pleased to announce Peter Tullock as the newest member of the Pond Home Board of Trustees and Pond Meadow Board of Directors.

Tullock grew up in Walpole and now makes his home in Wrentham with his wife and children. He is the proprietor of Custom Furniture Making & Antique Restoration on Rte. 121 in Wrentham.

Tullock has a long history with Pond Home and Pond Meadow; his father Jim Tullock recently retired as a member of both Boards following close to twenty years of service as a Trustee and Director. In addition, over the years he has provided repair and refurbishing work on antiques that are in use at Pond Home.

“We are pleased to welcome Peter to both the Pond Home and Pond Meadow boards,” said Michelmore. “We are certain that these non profit organizations will benefit from his participation.”

Tullock, who enjoys bee keeping as a hobby, is currently Vice President of the Board of Directors, Norfolk County Beekeepers Association and also teaches classes at the Association’s school.

“I’m proud to have the opportunity to sit on the Boards of both these highly respected organizations,” said Tullock.

Board members at Pond Home and Pond Meadow are volunteers that oversee the operations of each entity, set policy and review practices. Tullock joins current board members Charles Cole, Gretchen Kingman, Ellen Barrow, and Senator Richard Ross all of Wrentham; Patricia Bishop of Plainville; Maxine Johnson of Attleboro; Lisa Oberly, Jane Bergen, and Leif Jacobsen all of Walpole; Paul Anderson, Thomas Crocker, and Attorney John Michelmore of Foxboro, and Sharon Nery of Mansfield.

Anyone interested in volunteering as a Board member to either organization can contact Becky Annis, Administrator at (508)384-3531 ext. 225.
